We are a provider of educational products that we believe will assist you in learning trading strategies and practices. However, we do not provide any guarantees, warranties, or assurances that by using our educational materials, you will be successful in trading financial instruments, including but not limited to stocks, commodities, futures, options, currencies, or cryptocurrencies. The information provided through the Kaivalya $9M Capital Trading Program or With His Hands Foundation does not constitute financial advice, investment advice, or a solicitation to buy or sell any financial product or security. Additionally, we are not registered as a commodity trading advisor, futures commission merchant, broker, investment advisor, or any other regulated financial professional. All information is provided solely for educational purposes. You agree that you will not hold us responsible for any financial losses or other outcomes resulting from your trading decisions, including those influenced by our educational products or content. Risk Disclosure Statement

The risk of financial loss in trading securities, commodity futures contracts, options, currencies, and other instruments can be substantial. High degrees of leverage (gearing) often obtainable in trading can work both for and against you, leading to large losses as well as gains. You may sustain a total loss of the funds that you deposit with your broker to enter or maintain a trading position, and you may incur additional losses beyond those amounts. You should carefully evaluate whether trading is suitable for your financial resources, objectives, and circumstances. Under certain market conditions, including but not limited to extreme volatility or illiquidity, it may become difficult or impossible to liquidate a position. Trading inherently involves risk, and there are no guarantees of profit. Past performance is not indicative of future results, and any trading strategies or examples discussed in the program are purely for educational purposes. Hypothetical or Simulated Results

Our educational materials may rely upon hypothetical or simulated performance results that have inherent limitations. Unlike actual trading results, these hypothetical examples do not represent real trades. They are based on assumptions and may not account for certain market factors such as liquidity or slippage. Hypothetical trading programs are designed with the benefit of hindsight and carry no guarantee of achieving similar results in actual trading. No representation is made that any account or individual will achieve profits or avoid losses similar to those illustrated in hypothetical examples.
